

It's Time to prepare for our "RECITAL FOR FUTURE STARS & SPRING DANCE CONCERT 2"

With May just around the corner, here is the first of several emails regarding the details around our Recital for Future Stars / Spring Dance Concert 2 event! Miller Marley School of Dance & Voice is thrilled to be given the opportunity to present to our community our Act One, Recital for Future Stars and our Act Two, Spring Dance Concert 2 at the Lied Center of Kansas in Lawrence, KS. This lovely venue is a favorite for the Staff at Miller Marley, as we have found them to not only be gracious hosts but have worked well with us professionally. We look forward to this special event for our Miller Marley students and families and wish you a positive, memorable experience for your family and most importantly your dancer(s)!

Spacing Rehearsal Schedules

On stage, spacing rehearsals for our class performances will take place at the Lied Center for our dancers on the morning of your student's performance. Students need to arrive 15 minutes early in their class attire for this rehearsal. Select dancers from each class will be asked to wear their costume during rehearsal for our lighting designers.

Show Order

Included in the links below, you will find a link to each performance on Saturday, May 25th, and Sunday May 26th. These documents will help Parents / dancers prepare for when their numbers will appear in the production. Preview these documents as you prepare for your child's performance, costume changes and possible pickup time.
