Program Notes by Roy Lightner

“I see the world through your eyes, and possibilities expand.” - William Finn, Infinite Joy

In Your Eyes examines the complex spectrum of emotional connections that exist in human relationships and the power struggles, rewards and gratification that drive them. Though the modus operandi differs from character to character, the predominant common denominator is their quest for love and acceptance. It is through human interaction that we gain the insight and compassion that opens our eyes and allows us to see others and ourselves for who we really are. In Your Eyes is about this journey and reminds us that despite adversity, LOVE continues to live forever.

Snow White Program Notes

Once upon a time there was a beautiful princess, named Snow White. Her skin was white as snow, her lips were the color of red roses and her hair was black as ebony. Snow White lived with her cruel and arrogant stepmother, the Queen. When the Queen’s magic mirror proclaimed that Snow White was “the fairest in the land,” the Queen ordered the royal servants to take Snow White into the forest and kill her. Once there, the Queen’s servants took pity upon the girl and spared her life. Alone and afraid, Snow White fled into the forest where she was befriended by the Queen of the Fairies and the Blue Birds, who led her to a quaint little cottage nestled in the woods.

Snow White soon discovered that the cottage belonged to the Seven Dwarfs: Doc, Sleepy, Sneezy, Grumpy, Happy, Bashful and Dopey. Learning of the girl’s plight to escape her evil stepmother, the dwarfs offered Snow White refuge in their tiny home. In return for their kindness, Snow White cared for the Dwarfs and they all lived happily together.

When the Queen received word that Snow White was still alive, she devised a plot to finish off the princess once and for all. Disguised as an old hag, the Queen paid a visit to Snow White and enticed the girl with a shiny red apple. Unbeknownst to Snow White, the apple was cast with a spell that caused her to fall into a deep sleep that could only be broken by love’s first kiss. Upon finding her lifeless body, the seven dwarfs carried Snow White to a clearing in the woods where they stood watch over their beloved friend.

Seasons passed while the dwarfs continued their vigil. And then, a handsome prince arrived to save the day. Mesmerized by her beauty, the prince kissed Snow White and magically, the spell was broken and the princess awoke. The prince professed his love for her and amid great rejoicing, Snow White bid farewell to the Seven Dwarfs and rode off into the sunset to begin her new life.
