Miller Marley
Youth Ballet

Act 1: March 24 at 2:00pm
Olathe South Performing Arts Center

Welcome to Miller Marley’s Spring Dance Concert 2024, presented as part of our Celebrating 61 Years in Business! Our performing company members are so excited to share their love of song and dance with all of you. Many dancing schools offer a performing company. There are dancing schools whose primary focus is on the competition circuit, schools that focus on ballet, and schools that focus on musical theatre. There is only one Miller Marley School of Dance and Voice, which offers your child the most well-rounded performing arts education in this beautiful city we call home.

Many students have passed through the doors at Miller Marley since its opening in 1963. Our school has been the launching pad for the careers of well over 100 alumni who have gone on to successful stage and film careers, out of which over 60 have appeared in over 130 Broadway shows. Once upon a time these students were just kids, now they are professionals who have appeared as a Rockette, or as an actor / actress on TV, in the movies, on Broadway, or in a National Tour in theatres on both coasts and internationally. Miller Marley also has students dancing professionally in industrial dance, concert dance, in a professional ballet company and the list goes on.

To see these former student’s grow and prosper has been a dream come true. To our Miller Marley families: “Your love and support allows us to soar to greater heights.” Your beautiful children are a direct reflection of their wonderful parents. To our Miller Marley performance company members, don’t forget the lasting impression you create on the younger ones, who gaze at you in awe and aspire to dance or sing just like you. Thank you for your loyalty and dedication. You will always be in our hearts and a part of our Miller Marley family.

“Setting others up for success is the greatest gift we can give as well as receive.”

Choreographer's notes

In a far-off place, under the sea, there lived a mermaid princess, Ariel. Her father's kingdom was more beautiful than can be imagined; yet every night, The Little Mermaid dreamed of the world on land. Her father, King Triton, forbade his daughters to visit the surface.

When her fifteenth birthday came, Ariel could hardly wait for the festivities to end. The curious mermaid swam near to the ship so she could see the humans. The most handsome of all was a young prince, Eric.

As the evening went on, however, the wind began to blow, and the swells began to grow. A terrible storm was brewing. The mighty waves tossed the ship as lightning burned through the sky. Finally the ship gave in to the sea. Ariel knew she must save the Prince who was drowning. She lifted his head above the surface until the storm had passed. By this time, morning had broken, and she had brought him to a calm beach in a tiny bay leaving him safely on the sand. The Little Mermaid watched over Prince Eric to make sure he would be all right. Briefly seeing the Little Mermaid, the Prince heard her voice as she swam back to her father's palace deep beneath the waves.

Saddened to think she might never see him again; Ariel asked her father if she could go to the shore. She hoped to see the Prince once more, for she had fallen in love with him. After her father denied her permission to go the shore, she knew she must consult the Sea Witch, of whom she had always been so afraid.

The Sea Witch knew why the Little Mermaid had come and was quite willing to help. She would make a potion that would give the mermaid legs instead of a fishtail. She would appear graceful and lovely, but as payment to the witch, she must give up her voice. The Sea Witch told her she must have the Prince fall in love with her, for if he marries another, she will die. Desperate, Ariel agrees, and she signs a contract giving up her voice for legs. The mermaid's wish to become human came true.

The next morning, the Little Mermaid woke up on the beach where the Prince's castle overlooked the sea. Soon, the Prince happened upon the mermaid, but without her voice, she could not tell him who she was or where she had come from. The Prince took her back to his castle where they quickly became great friends. At last, the time had come for the Prince to choose a bride. Knowing that the Prince had never forgotten the face of the young girl, the Sea Witch transformed herself into a beautiful young girl disguising her voice with Ariel's.

Thinking that she might have been the one who saved him, he chose her to marry. After the Prince announced his engagement, the Little Mermaid's heart was broken, as she believed that she not only lost the man she loved, but also would die. King Triton confronted the Sea Witch and begged her to break the spell, but she would not do it. With his magical power, King Triton returns The Little Mermaid's voice to her. Only then could the Prince see the sacrifice that the Little Mermaid had made to be with him and knew that he could not be happy without her. The Prince realized Ariel was the girl that had saved him and that she was the one he would marry. They had a grand wedding above the sea and lived happily ever after.
